Fred went through their money. Had 3 children. 2 boys and 1 girls. They were wonderful. He came back to Hartford years later. He chewed tobacco and spit tobacco. Spit it clear across the room. William Samuel Edwards is an interesting and curious character. He is the first of my direct line Edwards ancestors which I have a proven picture of. His life starts out right away very perplexing.

William S. Edwards was born in 1829 in Tennessee. There is no way of finding William S. Edwards in any census until 1850 because the federal census pre-1850 mentioned only head of house holds.

In an earlier genealogical trip to Napa Valley California to meet my fathers cousins and to exchange stories and pictures I was very fortunate to photograph very old pictures of letters written by Mary Edwards Little, (I call these letters {5}"MARY EDWARDS LITTLE PAPERS"). In one of these letters Mary Little refers to a picture which she had correlated with the letters which she wrote, the picture was of her Great Aunt Mag which she stated "as I recall she (Aunt Mag) was the sister of fathers father". Kind of confusing for me at the time but Mary Little's father was James P. Edwards which was the son to William S. Edwards b.1829.(refer to Chapter VI)

So where does this muddled mess take us now, let me proceed.

I knew that William S. Edwards was my great grandfathers father because I had found them both mentioned in the 1870 and 1880 federal census for Davis County Iowa.

So with this fact added to the mentioned relation to "Aunt Mag" I thought that this was enough proof to proceed to investigate "Aunt Mag" and her family and possibly find their father. This is where I jumped to the next level which was realizing that I was now a descendant of Owen Edwards and Amanda Edwards Longacre, the parents of W.S.E. Edwards and Margaret "Aunt Mag" Edwards Wheeler Collinson.

Through several avenues of research I located the descendants of the son of Margaret Edwards "Aunt Mag" Wheeler Collinson, Eldridge Wheeler living near Montasano Washington. With a nice ladies help by the name of Lana Irelan I found out that Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson's parents were Owen Edwards and Amanda Edwards Longacre of Sullivan County Tennessee.

Now with the use of "Mary Edwards Little Papers" and her mention of "as I recall she "Aunt Mag" was the sister of fathers father" I was able to tie William S. Edwards to Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson, then in turn was able to tie both of them to Owen Edwards and Amanda Longacre and later to Abel Edwards and Polly Potts.

I new that Lana Irelan mentioned Owen Edwards was the father to Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson, but for myself and my research I wanted to be able to find proof of this. I decided to do research on Owen Edwards and try to prove the tie between him and William S. Edwards. I found many Owen Edwards mentioned, but only one with the locator of Tennessee which was where William S. Edwards was born, so I sent away for the film and retrieved the name of the submitter of the information which was on the film and contacted them.

John and Rae Reeder had an interesting link to my already growing collections of links to our family chain. We exchanged information concerning our families and what they sent me brought another child to Owen Edwards and Amanda Edwards Longacre. The name that they sent me was, Mary Maria Edwards Reeder which in their notes was the daughter to a "Owen Edwards and Amanda Edwards Longacre". There was no mention of siblings to M. M. Edwards Reeder.

This just added to the jumbled pile of unproven information. I now had my William S. Edwards tied to Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson, which in information sent to me was the daughter of a Owen Edwards and Amanda Longacre, (at that time unproven).

I now had a new name of Mary Maria Edwards Reeder which her fathers name, according to information that was sent to me was Owen Edwards which was married to Amanda Longacre, (at that time unproven). Where is the problem right? Well the problem was other than the information that was generously shared to me by my soon to be proven distant cousins I had no other documented proof which could stand up beside what I then believed to be very strong evidence to the ancestry of William S. Edwards.

By putting "2 and 2 together" it doesn't take allot to figure out that William S. Edwards, Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson and Mary Maria Edwards Reeder were siblings, by the information which at that time I had. Again no "PAPER PROOF" other than my collected notes.

I decided to try to find William S. Edwards in Iowa in the year 1860, which I did living west of Davis County Iowa in the county of Appanoose with his wife and two children, the youngest at that time was my great grandfather, James Philando Edwards. Living right next to William S. Edwards and family was "Mary Maria Reeder" and her family, which I was trying to prove at the same time as the sister to William S. Edwards and Margaret Edwards Wheeler Collinson. At this time in my mind I decided that there wasn't any possibility of a coincidence and longer, but I still needed that proof for my own sanity.

Logically, "to me", the next step was to find Owen Edwards and family living in Sullivan County Tennessee, I did the research found Owen Edwards and Mary Edwards "Reeder", and her sister Margaret Edwards "Wheeler Collinson" living with their father Owen Edwards, but no William S. Edwards. In my mind this couldn't be and if it was to be it wasn't fair! I had all of the un- documented proof that a person would need to prove that all three of the siblings mentioned were the children of Owen Edwards, but the 1850 Federal Census for Sullivan County Tennessee didn't mention William S. Edwards at all. This confused me for almost three years.

In a few weeks I just excepted the fact that I was just going to have to be happy with the collected notes and information and consider that proof enough to connect William S. Edwards and Owen Edwards as father and son.

Several years later after collecting over two thousand descendants of Abel Edwards and Polly Potts I was going over my notes, just browsing through them really not expecting to find anything at all that I didn't already know, and I found William S. Edwards in 1850, "WASHINGTON COUNTY TENNESSEE", just a few miles south of where his father and siblings were living in Sullivan County Tennessee at the same time. William S. Edwards was living with his uncle Samuel E. Edwards, brother to his father Owen Edwards. William Samuel Edwards was listed in this household as a "nephew", and a blacksmith. I FOUND HIM, PROVEN AND DOCUMENTED!

I believe that he left his home at around 19 years old to go and learn the trade of blacksmith from his uncle Samuel E. Edwards which was a blacksmith also. Maybe he did this to learn something different than just farming, we will never know.

William S. Edwards was the most difficult person so far that I have researched, but the outcome turned out well and I am glad that he is a proven descendant of Owen Edwards and mostly of Abel Edwards and Polly Potts.

311. Amy EVELYN BRAUCHER

Amy Braucher moved to Kansas in 1870, or in 1881 when Amy Edwards Braucher moved here. She died in Bethany Hospital which according to her death certificate in Wyandotte County, Kansas. Johnny remembers her as being somewhat of a "Hard" or "Cold" woman, not being what you think as having the sweet grandma image..

She would play the fiddle, piano and was very musical. Mon (Lelia) did not think she ever had any lessons.

John Bruce Kelley in his notes said that Amy was raised by her grandmother Braucher and Aunt Lou Jefferson, and Amy was 6 or 7 when her mother died.

Amy's father took Amy to a hotel in Burlington, and Amy had to make her own way Amy is said to have burned all the photos and keepsakes after the divorce, and Amy got the farm in the divorce that Joseph Martin Kelley had boughten. Amy sold it for $2800.00. Also said that Amy "Changed" and "seemed to fly off". Amy inherited uncle grandfather's Flemings house in Hartford when he died.

311S. JOSEPH Martin KELLEY

Johnny remembers that Joseph Kelley lived with Leo and Lelia after Jerry graduated from highschool (summer and fall of 1951). He loved to play pinochle and he thought he was good, but Johnny, Everett and Kenny would play him, and they would win, and he would get so mad that he would throw the cards at the wall and say "you darn kids" and go to bed. He liked to kid and tease, but had a hard time taking it. Johnny says he had no memory of grandpa Kelley when he was young, supposedly because of some fight Grandpa Kelley and Leo had.

They ignored each other and would even cross the street in Hartford so they would not have to talk to each other. This happened when Jerry Kelley was in highschool, and according to Colleen, she went and picked up Grandpa Kelley one day and took him to Leo's for dinner to settled the dispute. Jerry remembers that he was playing football, and he told his dad that he was going to get a car which was in western Kansas. Dad (Leo) got mad and kicked him out of the house, and so he went to live with Grandpa Kelley in Hartford for 3 or 4 months, until dad needed him back on the farm, and this was the time when Leo and his father were not speaking to each other.

Joseph Martin Kelley could play the fiddle and harmonica, but Mon (Lelia) did not think he had any lessons.

May Kelley Gaugh remembers that Sarah Mahaffey left Joseph M. Kelley at an early age (probably when she married Mr. Frisby and went to California, and Joseph was four old) and he lived his grandfather Fleming (and I think his uncle Fleming).

According to Dora Hull Kelley Joseph Martin Kelley was fun to be around and loved to play cards.

According to a note from John Bruce Kelley, Joseph Martin worked for Uncle Bill Fleming, and at the age of 12 years old, he had saved $12.00 for shoe and clothes, etc, but that Sadie came back, talked him out of it and bought a gold watch. His father also left him or had no contact with him (Probably when he married Ida Pittman in 1882) when Joseph was about 6 years old.

He was raised by Bill and Alice Fleming. According to May Kelley Gaugh, Bill was a real S.O.B., a mean man. One day Bill Fleming was going to town and told the kids to stay away from the clock on the mantle. Joseph looked into the clock after he had left and found a letter from his father. Joseph didn't even know he had a father in Emporia. May said he received several letters from his family. She also remembers that Joseph loved to be with older people

Lelia Kelley stated that both Joseph Kelley and Amy liked to argue and that Joseph Martin Kelley had a terrible temper (Worse than Leo's she said)

According to his obituary he was a member of the Eagle Creek Methodist Crek and joined in 1897 and was an active member for many years and a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge and Rebekah.

According to May Kelley Gaugh, Joseph Kelley had deep blue eyes, and attending school at the Fleming Schoolhouse, and then in Hartford, Ks. Joseph Martin Kelley and Myra Kelley were married in Oct 1937, but divorced on July 12, 1946. She charged him with extreme cruelty and threatened to do her bodily harm. Have a copy of their divorce.

Joseph Kelley had a house in Hartford, Ks. and lived there until he died of a heart attack while sitting on his front porch.

Leo Kelley bought the house after his death. It had been sold to the Bingham's and dad decided to buy it. I (Rita) don't think mon was happy about it.

Joseph Martin Kelley got $1000.00 from his mother's (Sadie Mahaffey Kelley) estate.

I (Rita) remember Joseph Martin Kelley when I was very young and would sit on his lap and comb his hair into silly hair styles. He would let me do this for quite a while it seemed to me. I would comb, comb, and comb his hair. I don't know how many times I did this. But he didn't get mad at me.

According to Jerry Kelley on Aug 1997, Joseph Martin Kelley always smoked a crooked pipe, while his son, Leo, always smoked a straight pipe.

311S. simon THEYS

He spoke French. They lived in Admire, KS. after they were married.

According to May Kelley Cowell Amy met Sam when she was working as a cook at a little hotel restaurant in Emporia. Before Amy and Sam were married, Sm had sold off all of his property and given the money to his children.

Therefore when Sam & Amy were married he had no money of his own and she bought the house in Admire when her money. After a few years, Sam quit farming and they sold the property and moved to Visalia, California, to be near Sam's daughter. For many years Sam and Amy had spent many years before they sold out in Admire following the fruit crops in Arizon and California picking fruit for a living. They said they enjoyed it. Sam and Amy lived in Visalia in their own home for about ten years and Sam died of caner. He was buried in Visalia, Calif. beside Amy Evelyn Braucher.

James Philando Edwards from all accounts from living family members was not a very nice man and for the most part not easy to get along with. This is not to say that he was all bad, but maybe just a man who had a hard life.

J. P. Edwards is the first person in my ancestry which one can determine what kind of personality he had. Through different stories collected through out my research his personal profile becomes more clear.

Once James Philando Edwards wife Florabelle Breeding Edwards passed away in 1919, James P. Edwards didn't have anyone to take care of him and because of his ever increasing ill health he was not able to work to provide for himself and his youngest and last child still living with him, Buelah Edwards.

It is known that J.P. Edwards was living in Labette County Kansas in 1920 and from 1920 until December 1922 his whereabouts are unknown. It is very probable that he moved to Canon City Colorado soon after 1920 to be near his son John Harlan Edwards who was currently living in Canon City Colorado, and possibly his other son James Dale Edwards, who left home sometime after his mother Florabelle Edwards death in 1919 for Canon City Colorado where he was to marry his wife Sally Barneycastle in 1922.

James Philando Edwards was staying with his son James Dale Edwards in a boarding house in Canon City Colorado around the ladder year of 1922, and J.P. Edwards signature can be found as a witness of marriage for his son James Dale Edwards in Canon City Colorado.

James P. Edwards can't be found anywhere between the years of 1923-1929, and the year of 1929 would be the date that James P. was admitted to the poor farm in Canon City Colorado.

It is supported through old family photo's that James P. Edwards was with his oldest son Virgil Edwards who was living in California, this would likely fit between the years of 1923-1929. It is also supported through family stories that James P. Edwards floated, or rather moved around from son to daughter. This would very probably fit between the years of 1923-1929.

Once James Philando Edwards daughter Buelah was married ca.1930 James P. Edwards was getting very feeble and the decision was made that it was time to put him in a hospital of some sort so he could be taken care of in a way that suited him.

James P. Edwards was admitted to the Canon City Poor Farm in Canon City Colorado in 1931, and from all accounts he stayed there until his death in 1938.

STORY: (Told to me by my father Johnny Leroy Edwards)

In 1934 James Dale Edwards (son to James P. Edwards) decided it was time to leave Colorado for Oregon for a better life.

Before James D. Edwards left Canon City Colorado he took his children to say goodbye to their grandfather (James P. Edwards) which at this time lived in the Poor Farm in Canon City Colorado.

James Philando Edwards was completely blind and laying in a bed when James Dale Edwards brought his children in to see him. Before they left James Philando Edwards took his hands and felt the faces of James Dale Edwards children so he could imagine what his grandchildren looked like, before their long journey started. James Philando Edwards gave each child a silver dollar before they left.

James D. Edwards son Albert Edwards always kept this silver dollar and it is the possession of his children to this day.

STORY: (Told to me by Rae Miller)

(Rae Edwards Miller was the granddaughter to James Philando Edwards)

He (James P. Edwards) lived with us for awhile, he was a real mean person...

James P. Edwards at one time came to live with us, Grandpa (James P. Edwards) use to go over to the grocery store and my mother would send me over to get him after he would call the house. Now, how he got from where ever he was to the store I wouldn't know.

(Rae says this because of an earlier comment of how James P. Edwards was blind.)

I would go up to him and he would always have those flat round peppermints. He would give me those and hazel nuts, well I thought he was "cats meow". I would take his hand and we would cuddle on home. He was very sweet with me.

STORY: (Told to me by Polly Spring, Granddaughter to James P. Edwards)

On one occasion when my father (Charles S. Edwards, son to James P. Edwards) was a boy he was told by his father to do a specific set of chores and after they were completed he would take him to the circus which was in town. When Charles S. Edwards completed these chores he went up to his father and told him that he was all done with what he was asked to do, Charles asked his father, "Can we go to the circus now?" His father said to him, "I was just kidding."

AUTHORS NOTE: This adaption of this story was told to Polly Edwards Spring by her father Charles S. Edwards.

The story supports the harshness of James P. Edwards.

STORY: (Told to me by Robert Edwards, grandson to James Philando Edwards. Robert is talking about his father Charles S. Edwards and his relationship to James P. Edwards his father.)

From what little I learned from my father about his childhood I can only discern that it was a hard life. Many children in the family and very rural (Davis County Iowa) farm, etc.

His father was extremely strict and harsh. My father had difficulty talking about his father. My father never communicated with his father. Seemed to be some resentment. When James P. Edwards died his body was shipped west. It came through Ogden (Utah).

When my father and I went to the station and saw the casket, my father cried. So much resentment but in the end there was so much love.

AUTHORS NOTE:I think that this is an exceptional explanation of James P. Edwards and his relationship to his son Charles S. Edwards and his other children. All of James Philando Edwards children felt this way to some degree or another and I think that they always loved their father even though he was cruel and/or harsh to them for most of their lives.

LETTER:(Letter was written by a son of my great grandfather James Philando Edwards, to a daughter of James Philando Edwards) (Transcribed by Johnny James Edwards)

Canon City Colo

July 28th, 1922

Dear Sister:

I will try and write you a torn can't read in answer to you letter we received this afternoon.

Although I do not hardly know how to start out.

Thus I will say a few words as to local affairs in and around Canon.

Had quite a little shower this evening cooled things off so a fella can sleep good tonight. torn a real nice garden here had all the good stuff we wanted to eat. Bean bugs have torn my beans guess I will plow the ground up and plant some late beans and peas, also some lettuce.

I share 30 young chickens.

break in letter

Everything was "happiness" in the "home" until Little(Husband to Mary Edwards Little, daughter to James P. Edwards) came in with his mother and sister and then Mary (daughter to James P. Edwards) kicks her father and sister for her husbands folks.

AUTHORS NOTE:The above paragraph supports the moving around of James P. Edwards after his wife Florabelle died.

(Daughter) I haven't ever said that I wouldn't send father any money for I will..., I want to know that father gets the money I intend for he and Beulah to have, and special delivery letter will take it to him.

AUTHORS NOTE:At this time in James P. Edwards life he couldn't support himself and his last child at home, this is the primary reason why he had to live with his children. This portion of the letter shows financial support from his children.

I wish that father(James P. Edwards) and Beulah(daughter to James P. Edwards) were in Canon it

AUTHORS NOTE:It was only five months later that James P. Edwards moved to Canon City Colorado to live near/with his two sons James Dale, and John Harlan Edwards. Obviously something was done about the living arrangements of James P. Edwards and Beulah his daughter. would be a much more desirable place for them and then. I could furnish them with all the vegetables they could eat and Buelah could pick enough fruit on the not clear to furnish them with all the canned stuff they could eat until fruit comes again.

(Daughter) you say, "you would if it was in your power make a "home" for father and Beulah. I would do the same but I am handwapped just as you are, and here a family to look after.

I am going to sell our little home this fall to square things up and I think there will be enough money so that father and Beulah can have a little role.

When I think of father I don't think how he done in the past but think of him as I last knew him.
AUTHORS NOTE: This supports the characterization of James P. Edwards as a difficult father to live with.

"(Daughter) I believe in doing good, but I don't intend to give and money to any out can't read if they do need it bad.

I intend to send father money every month I have a check to get the money with. Dale (son to James P. Edwards) does intend the same.
break in letter

Yes (daughter), I think it is right for each one to help everyone I mean of the whole Edwards family.
break in letter

as ever you loving bro and family

AUTHORS NOTE: I think that this transcribed letter is the best evidence of how James Philando Edwards was treated and lived his last few years. After his wife Florabelle died, it was only him and his daughter, and their day to day life was not an easy one.

He never married. I cannot be positive that this is the same Maurice Edwards that is buried in the Hartford Cemetary. The tombstone reads Maurice, not Robert Maurice. Jim Herrick's record has two Maurice Edwards.

One born 10 Feb 1903 named Robert Maurice, and another Maurice Edwards, who died 10 Feb 1904 and is buried at the Hartford Cemetary. Both are supposedly buried in the Hartford Cemetary. But I find no record so far of Robert Maurice who died 2 March 1981 in Burlington.

695. SADIE May KELLEY
May and Elmo Colwell had a baby boy who died at birth, and is buried in the

Hartford Cemetary, according to Lelia Hartenbower Kelley, May 30, 1994.

Random Notes:

When May was 1 year old, she got into some lye and tried to swallow some.

Her mother ran to the old Kelley (Edwards) farm, and a Mrs. Ball helped force May to swallow lotion and lard. Her mother carried her upside down from "poverty ridge farm.

Her parents always called her "May", but Elmo called her "Sade". She attended Hartford High School, but did not graduate.

May always dresses up.

She loves lacy clothes, and very feminine clothes. She started painting in 1952 Sadie and Elmo were married in Emporia, Kansas.

May and Elmo had a farm 2 miles northwest of Hartford, Ks. They moved to California in 1946. They lived in Altoona, California

May has blue eyes.

In Jan. 1996 May said her eyesight is terrible, and would love to play the organ again but she cannot see the notes.

She was matron of the eastern star in 1929. She was very active in Eastern Star and in 1996 she will be in the Eastern star for 75 years. She joined in 1918.

696. JOSEPH LEO KELLEY

Random Notes: Leo Kelley and family lived in about 1949, 1950, or 1951 on the Partridge Place (kelley on the hill place to Rita Kelley) and had both grandfathers (Kelley and Hartenbower) living with them. This is after Emelia Hartenbower passed away. Jesse Hartenbower remembers this too, and thought they must have gotten along. According to Leo Kelley, he was born about 1/4 of a mile from the (Charley Edwards Place) Kelley farm, which was located about 3 1/2 miles west and south of Hartford. There were, in 1955, beautiful lilacs bushes there, and I (Rita Kelley) remember walking there every spring many times and picking lilacs and putting them all over the house. They smelled wonderful, and I think Mother liked them.

Eulin and Leo KELLEY had a terrible case of diptheria in Dec of 1906.

Eulin died. His parents didn't even know if he would be alive when they returned from Eulin's funeral. So that Christmas, May and Leo were still in bed and wanted something to do, and wanted to decorate a Christmas tree. Their mother got them a peach twig so they could have it by their bed and they cut up white tissue paper in strips and wrapped and glued it on the twigs. They also strung popcorn on the twig. They tied candles on the ends, and on Christmas eve they got to light them, but quickly had to blow them out because of the fire hazard.

This is according to May Kelley Gaugh on Dec 18, 1994.

Leo Kelley graduated from Hartford High School, where he loved to play football. He loved football, and there is even a picture of him where he made 7 touchdowns in one game. He always followed his boy's football game too. Probably did not want to miss a one of them. He also loved soft ball and played in the field all the time. It was also stated that he even went to an Emporia college (ESU??) to play football. I did not find any record of it.

Jesse Hartenbower remembers that in the 1930's John Hartenbower and Leo grew wheat together. They had it cut and shocked and then a flood came that night and washed it down the river. Jesse said. "The Leo had lots of bad happenings to him". He even had two barns burn down.

-EDWARDS 385 INFO SUBMITTED FROM RITA LOUK

According to Darrell Kelley, Leo worked for the WPA in 1934 during the depression. He hauled rock from the rock quarry to the roads being built around the Hartford area. Darrell said it was the only way they had of putting food on the table.

According to a newspaper article dated July 3, 1936, Leo Kelly had real hard luck, June 16, when his herd of dairy cows, consisting of 11 head, broke through the pasture fence into a kafir field and gorged themselves on the green kafir, from which 10 head died.

Leo also loved to hunt. He loved to hunt coons, and Johnny remembers when he would have to go with him to coon hunt. He always had coon dogs.

Jerry remembers when he had a good coon dog, sired by one of Leo's dogs, and that Leo sold it (Jerry's dog) off to buy a 4 gauge shotgun and Jerry never even got the gun!

Leo also loved to fish. He went as often as he could. When he found out that he had cancer and was getting weaker and sicker, Buddy Muir often went with him and looked after them. He often told stories about the huge fish he caught, and was known to bring home some huge ones. He was even known to "noodle" them.

I, Rita Kelley, remember going to a pond to get "helgimites" for bates, and using a big net to catch them. I didn't even know what I was doing, or how to do it, but Dad thought it was great. That was after the boys were gone from home.

Colleen remembers the dances that Leo and Lelia had in their huge kitchen and this happened when mom and dad were young. Grandma Kelley played the fiddle (Violin) and harmonica, and grandpa Kelley played the fiddle and piano. (Both were very musical). Everyone had a ball and they put the kitchen furniture in the living room. This happened on the weekend and everyone came and stayed late. Mother (Lelis Kelley) did not think that either Grandpa and Grandma Kelley had ever had music lessons.

Colleen also remembers that people often came over to the Kelleys. When it was chore time, Leo would tell everybody to "Go Home" very bluntly. One time Mon had puzzles set up on card tables for her Farmrett Club, and after dad had told everybody to go home, the people came back and put the puzzles together.

It is also remembered that one Halloween party Mon and Dad had a greased rope hanging down in the kitchen and people trying to climb up it. It was hilarious. Everyone had fun with Mon and Dad. Leo could be the life of the party. He always liked being in the lime light. He had a great sense of humor and laughed often and out loud at parties.

Leo was a farmer most of his life and the normal rent season was up in March so they always moved then. Often into the big old houses Mon didn't like.

Another memory: Leo had been haying for someone in the early 1940's and was bringing the team of horses and hay when the horses spooked and jumped off the bridge (the east river bridge--east of Hartford) Lawrence was driving the team. According to Johnny, the old blind mare had gotten to close to the edge and fell in, and Dad jumped in and rode her out.

Mon always said that Dad could climb anything, and was good at it.

Mon (Lelia) said that Dad loved to read, but didn't have much time to do so.

He couldn't spell, and wrote "very few letters" I, Rita, have one of them. She is correct !!

Leo had a bad temper and often used it.

Leo had beautiful blue eyes. It was soft powder blue (sky blue). Joyce has his eyes, and Laurence too.

Leo and Lelia got electricity on the farm (On the Hill) in 1951. I (Rita) remembers coming home from school, and it had been installed, and I was mystified. Carolyn said that Dad often held in all his real feelings, and was not terribly emotional. She did remember though how he cried at her senior graduation. Joyce and Dad seemed to be closer than I (Rita) was.

Leo died of lung cancer, and Carolyn remembers that he often said it hurt when he was just touched. He even had his great sense of humor when he died. For the very afternoon he died he teased R. Lohmeyer with a venician blind cord, and teased the doctor about hanging himself. The afternoon he died, Leo was in Newman's Hospital, Joyce had been sent home to do the chores and knew that he had died because all of a sudden a terrible wind and clouds came over the house. I (Rita) remember Mon keeping me that Dad had cancer when we were shopping in Eporia on the sidewalk. Every time I went home from college, he was weaker, and coughing more and more. They tried to do surgery, but the cancer was so far gone that they just sewed him back up. Mon and Dad seemed to be so much closer during his last years, and after I was gone.

Colleen remembers that when Everett was being born, she had been spending the night with a friend, and Mon (Lelia) went into labor, and that Leo went to his friend's house and told Colleen to go home, and he then went into town to get the doctor and midwife. Johnny and Carolyn were taken over to the Storey house to stay. Colleen said that it was raining terrible and that the barn caught on fire. Dad went into the burning barn and got 4 of the horses out. 2 horses were burned to death. Baldy and Grey were badly burned, and Prince and Queen were o.k. Baldy was a quarter horse and an excellent cattle horse. He was beautiful. Prince was very strong and was great big percheon?? Stallion. Tony was Baldy's and Prince's son and Tony was the only horse that was to the farm (the Edward's place).

In Dec 1993, Fred Herrick told the following story. Fred found Leo out in the field with the tractor overturned and came over to help him. Fred drove through the field and Leo gave me "Hell" at first during in the field. Then he settled down and let Fred help, and that Leo was very grateful. He also remember that when Leo was very ill, he found him a lot of static but that Fred told Leo to go sit down and be quiet. Fred unloaded the hay, and again Leo was very very grateful.

Leo was always getting the kids or someone else to do a job, and then he would find some excuse to "go to town". He would go to town and stay for hours, talking and drinking coffee with the men. He loved to go visiting.

However, everybody doing the work would be awfully upset with him.

Leo and Lelia separated cream from the milk. Lelia said "It was dad's idea" and then her eyes rolled. She said "He always came up with the ideas and he didn't have to do any of the work. They separated the milk down in the basement. In the 1950's they got milking machines, and mon was very very glad about it.

Johnny remembers that once dad tried to kick Lawrence's butt once, and Laurence grabbed his leg, and that Leo fell back into the hog pen.

Leo got his foot caught in the combine one summer and it was a terrible accident. He was in the hospital for some time, and lost some toes on one foot. He wore two different sizes of shoes after that. One size for his good foot and a bigger size for his hurt foot. The neighbors all went together and put in the silo that summer while he was in the hospital. There is a big newspaper article about it. Johnny remembers coming home from New Jersey and helping out because of the accident.

The following are remarks made by Lelia Kelley about Leo on Sept 21, 1993. "Leo was an easy man to get along with as long as he got his way. He did have a sharp and biting tongue, and would, and could, give you a real tongue lashing". I, Rita, remember the tongue lashing too! Many times! Leo also loved to dance, and was a very good dancer and that at dances he often danced with other women because mon wasn't a good dancer. He was a real social person, and people were always teasing him and he would make some excuse and go to town for an hour or so. He loved to go to town and drink coffee and talk, talk, talk. He would spend hours talking to his friends.

I, Rita, remember that dad loved music. He had a beautiful voice. My fondest memories of our family is when Joyce or Carol would play the piano and all the kids and inlaws that were around would gather around the piano and sing. Mon would always be in the kitchen, always listening.

But never singing. These sessions at the piano often lasted for an entire evening or until supper was ready. Dad's favorite hymn was the "Old Rugged Cross". Joyce said he loved "The Old Lamp Lighter" (which I also love). We really didn't sing church hymns too often. It was usually old songs, often there were 6-7-8 people around the piano singing. It was special!

Colleen remembers that Leo was in a play at the Hartford Centennial which was a riot. It was called "The Hatfields and the McCoy's. Everyone loved it.

In Aug 1997, Jerry Kelley stated that Leo always smoked a straight pipe, because he was always cleaning the tobacco out of it, and that his dad, Joseph Martin, also smoked a crooked pipe.

696S. LELIA Elizabeth HARTENBOWER

Random Notes:

According to Lelia, when she moved to Neosho Rapids, she got to go into the 8th grade and that her folks paid the tuition for her to go.

Lelia taught at Wooster Hill (1 mile north; 1/2 mile west of Neosho Rapids).

It was a little one room school. In 1921 Lelia had went to Normal School for the summer so she could teach at Wooster Hill. She stayed out in the country with the McCullough family (they had two small children) so she could walk to work. This was before she married Leo Kelley Jesse and Lelia often recalled when she, Grover, and Harvey and 3 Allen sisters were involved in a buggy-train wreck. This happened in 1912 or 1913. It happened after school, and Grover was driving the buggy. There were 6 kids in the buggy. Jesse and Jim and a Wells kid had gotten out of the school buggy and walked down a creek to check their traps. A train came and hit the school buggy. Lelia and Harvey landed on one side of the track, and Grover landed on the other side. Grover was knocked unconscious and didn't come around until midnight. The 3 Allen girls were picked up on the cow catcher of the train engine. How they kept from being all killed Jesse didn't know. The horses ran away and were found down the road. The girls were also o.k.

May Kelley Gaugh always called Lelia, "The Queen among Women". She was such a great woman.

She supported her sons when they played football by washing their football uniforms, and yet she never understood the game. She only knew that they went down and she tried to look and make sure they got back up.

According to Rita, Lelia was the best mother ever. You never saw her upset, and she handled everything with composure. Very even tempered.

-EDWARDS 385 INFO SUBMITTED FROM RITA LOUK

Lelia had detached retinas in her eyes. She had two operations. I (Rita) went with Carolyn to Kansas City for her 2nd eye operation. I remember Carolyn saying "don't get upset if mom looks so much older when she is in recovery". She didn't look like herself and did look older. The operations were successful and she could see. Carolyn said that both operations were held at the Baptist Hospital in Kansas City and were about a week away. Mom was also nervous about losing her eye sight after that.

This happened about 1974-1975.

Lelia also had cancer of the lymph glands. This was when I was a freshman in college. I (Rita) remember it because on a Saturday morning Kenny came to the apartment I was living in with Joyce on Commercial Street, and came to pick me up. He told me mon had cancer and was undergoing treatment for it. He took me home for the weekend. Mon underwent radiation treatment, which seemed to work. I was so shocked because I knew nothing of it, and Kenny never picked me up.

Note from John Bruce Kelley said that Lelia inherited 12 cents from Uncle Jim Hoover when he died.

Notes from Bernice Kelley (Jerry Kelley's wife) about Lelia

"As related by Lelia Kelley - Feb 1992"

When they lived at Rose Hill it was about 12 miles from town (Wichita). They went by wagon once a week and the whole family would go, budingling up in blanked in cold westher. Her mother would sell her eggs and butter, and they would stock up on groveries. Lelia said "mother had a very good reputation for her butter. She was particular and clean with it. She would mold it in 1 lb molds andf keep them in the ice box". Her mother usually drove the agon althou later sometimes the older oys would take them. She remembers how the team of horses found their way down the dirt road after dark, and her faters guiding them with his clicking noises. They had a lantern but didn't alwatys need it if it was a moonlit night. They left about 7 and got home about 9. They were prolsporous and well fed and clothed. She said her mother usually bought a crate of oranges. Also she has mentioned fresh oysters which were in a barrel and iced.

Mrs. Hartenbower was apparently a most meticulous housekeeper and took her duties seriously. Lelia said she always ironed her husbands shirts, which was most of time a white shirt. She always wanted him and the boys to look nice, appearently Lelia feels she favored them over the girls. She did all the cooking. Indeed Lelia didn't learn how to cook until she was married. She didn't think the girls could meausre up with this or other household chores. Sister Bernice had stated she couldn't hand out the wash properly. It was suggested maybe she didn't apply herself, thus escaping the drugery. She was very pretty and popular. She had many beaus (Bernice did). She was quite good at basketball. Lelia told about how she and brother Jesse got to take the buggy to school at Neosho Rapids. It was 2 or 3 miles and they sometimes walked. Then in the last years of high school she would have to wait for Jesse while he walked a girl friend home, before he drove them home. They lived in a very large house (Built by a Dr. for a hospital?) roomy for their family of 8 children. There was a vein of soft coal on the property and they used it for fuel; altho they mostly burned wood. One of the boys died at age 21, from "blood poisoning" . Leslie said he had cut his finger while doing some shop work.

When Lelia married Leo they farmed and tented several different farm houses. Leo was as carefree and Lelia was organized. The babies came reguarly and she delivered at home with sometimes a mide-wife only (?). They milked cows and this later fell to Lelia alone as Leo didn't apply himself to such regularity of responsibility. Mac McKenny loved to tell the story of Leo making amorous advances to her as she went about her milking chores one evening. Her response was to shower him thoroughly wit the bucket of soapy water she was carrying.

The six growing boys made a good hay team and they put up hay for several neighbors. Leo got them started at an early age. Jerry told how he & Lawrence would drive a truck when 8 or 10 years old, one pushing the pedals and one steering. He also told about following off the milk wagon (horse-drawn) when 4 or 5 years old. It ran over him on the dirt road, but his dad never stopped and he had to run to catch up. He also taught them how to swim by throwing them in the river. Injuries were never much concern for him. Lelia actually sutured some of the boys' lacerations herself, using strong cotton thread.

They finally bought the present homestead and moved onto it. Lelia said it had nothing but grass 2 or 3 ft. tall.

She worked very hard to make it a home and planted flowers and trees. When 88 years old, she told us "I'm thru planting trees. I've planted every tree here but 1 or 2". She set an asparagus bed along one side of the garden, with her green thumb, flowers bloomed and she would trade "starts" of Iris, peon, and poppies and also now has one of the loveliest perennial beds.

She was a wonder cook. Her homegrown strawberries and rhubarb provided delectable dishes for her table. Fresh baked bread often was the after school treat.

Lelia single-handedly managed to buy a life insurance policy for each child, one at a time out of the dairy money.

Lack of affluence didn't mean lack of fun. Their friends, the Harpers, came over to play cards about once a week. They went fishing and occasionally camped overnight. The boys entertained them with wrestling matches, egged on by the Harpers. Fighting was almost a daily even with the boys near the same age (Jerry and Lawrence--Everette & Kenneth). Lelia didn't mind as long as it wasn't in the house. She'd chase them out with the broom". " THE END

I, Rita, remember mother making the best fresh bread ever. Not only did they taste superb, but the smell was a bouquet in itself. She would start the dough before early morning milking and put it on the edge of the floor to rise in the winter time, and then "punch" it down when she got back in the house, letting it rise for a 2nd time. Finally about 11 a.m. it would be ready to shape into dinner rolls, and at times even cinnamon rolls. The dinner rolls would be ready for the big noon lunch in the summer time. In time for all the boys and extra hired men that would show up for dinner. Everyone also loved her bread, and especially Mac McKinney, who often wanted mom to bake some for him, and pay for them.

If mom was sending rolls to a "food sale" to make money, Mac always wanted to know, for he would buy them (for a good price) before they ever went on the market.

Dad was real good about inviting people for dinner, especially in the summer time, and mother was a gracious hostess. She always had plenty, and knew how to add a little of this and a little of that to make certain, there was enough for everybody. It was nothing for us to have 14, 15, 16, people at the noon dinner table. At night, the meal was very simple, and many times leftovers.

Also remember the following story which much have happened in the late 1970's. Mom saw a snake in the house. It went into the cupboards which were at the top over the sink. Mon couldn't catch the snake that evening.

She finally got some nails and a hammer and hammered the cupboards shut, so the snake couldn't get out and went to bed. In the morning she called Louise Kelley and she and Buddy Muir came out and Buddy retrieved the snake.

Mother loved flowers, and always planted lots of them. She always had zinnas in a row by the mail box, and had there a beautiful iris bed. Her favorite bedding flower was the pansy. She always talked about their smiling faces, and how pretty they were. She loved to take her guests to her flower beds and enjoy them with them. She spent hours planting, pulling weeds, and watering (very springly because of the low water supply) and loving her flowers. She loved the big red rose bush by the front door of the house. Inside she always had African Violets. Uncle Grover got her started on them by giving her starts when she visited him in Arkansas. She babied her african violets just like babies and worried about them as if they were she own children. Her violets were beautiful and she was very proud of them. She would methodically water them and write down every time she fertiziled them. She always had lots of indooor house plants, and many different varieties. They were her babies.

Mother always had hugh gardens. She planted everything. She had to, she said, because if she didn't they would starve. I remember planting tomatoes with her. She would dig a hole about 5 inches deep. It had to be exactly so deep. Then she would put the tomato plant in it. My job would be to put the soil around it and give it "exactly one glass of water". She canned her vegetables and often would put up between 100 and 150 pints of green beans, lots of beets, etc. She also planted corn (one of the boys would plant it for her) and she always froze her corn. We would take about two days and begin very very early in the morning, gathering, and shucking the corn, boiling it and cutting it off the cob. Mon and Joyce usually cut the corn off the hull, and my job was to put it in pint containers. She would freeze about 150 to 200 pints of corn. She always wanted done before 5 that evening so she could run it to town and put it in the freezer she rented at the grocery store. She also always froze her peas.

Mon always had chickens too. Once a year, toward fall, it would be time to get rid of the chickens. She would go out and ring their necks. She would twirl their necks around and around until they snapped; or she would cut their heads off. I couldn't stand to watch it. She would then let them flop and flop until they were finally quiet. She would then take out a tea kettle of scalding water and a big tub and poor the water over the chicken so she could then pluck out the feathers. (I helped with that at times. I didn't like it though). Then she would get the insides out and bring them into the house. Joyce and mon always cleaned and cut the chickens up and I packed them into the little boxes we had for freezing. You had to pack each piece in a certain way so it would go into the box and then put a plastic sack ove the whole thing. Again mon would like to finish before 5 p.m., so she could run them into town and put them in the freezer.

Mon did't like to drive, but would drive into Hartford. She would never drive out on the highway, or into Emporia. She never had enough confidence in herself.

Mon often worked just like a man out in the fields, especially when the boys left. She would drive the tractor and other equipment just like a man. She always wore long sleeved shirt and a brimmed hat when she did, so she wouldn't get sunburned. I think she did it so she could keep dad in the field and working, and he needed the help.

Mother had a great intelligent mind. She loved to do cross-word puzzles and did the cross-word puzzle out of the Emporia Gazette, every day. She could get very disgusted at herself if she couldn't figure the words out, and checked her answers the next day in the paper. She did them until she was in her 80's. It kept her mind sharp. I even had a birthday cake made into a cross-word puzzle once.

Ever since she was a young woman, mother sewed clothes for her children, mended their clothes and crocheted doilies, etc. She was a perfectionist when she sewed, and did a beautiful job. She crocheted many many afgans, and made each child and I believe each grandchild got one of her afgans. Each one was different, and every one was perfect. If there was a miss-stitched, etc., she would rip the stickes out and start over again. Her hands and mind were never idle.

Blue was mother's favorite color.

Mother became very fragil when she was in her 80's and her children were scared that she would fall and hurt herself and not be found for a long time, especially in the winter. It was then decided, and she did too, that it was time to sell the farm, and move into "Happy Homes" in Hartford. This came after she decided she could no longer mow the grass at the farm. So, the farm was sold, along with many extra prosessions, and mother moved into town, into a small duplex owned by Jim George. Her mind continued to cause her problems, as did her strength, so a lady was hired to look after her twice a day in her apartment. This lasted almost a year, until it was decided that the next step was needed, and mon was moved into "Sterling House" here in Emporia. She didn't know where she was at often, but things went well until she started falling. She fell and broke her hip, and things went down hill after that. She really never recovered. They operated on her hip, and she did eventually go back to the Sterling House, but she "just gave up". She wouldn't eat, and had lots of trouble swallowing food. She died in the Sterling House after many agonizing weeks, when rest was finally granted her.

697. Eulin OSCAR KELLEY

He died of Dipteria. Both May, Leo and Eulin had it in Dec. 1906 Eulin was a bright little boy and a pupil in the primary grade. He seemed to realize that he was not going to get well and a short time before his death, called May and Leo, his brother and brother to his side, and told them to bring his books home. That he wasn't going to school any more. May Kelley said that he knew he was going to die.

Bapt: 19 June 1910. Fern and Roy were married at the Christian parsonage in Emporia by Rev. Cecil Franklin. After Roy's death Fern married David Maxwell, but he only lived for a couple of years after their marriage. He left Fern with over two hundred thousand dollars according to Aunt May Colwell. After David, she did have another male friend, but they never got married. Aunt May said he was a tightwad, and very controlling. When they came to Aunt May's he would give Fern only 15 minutes to visit, and would never pay for anything. He was going to take his money with him.

Aunt May Kelley Gaugh said that Fern was a "very impatient person and waited for nothing"

Fern attended Hartford High School but did not graduate.

Fern died in the Spring of 1997. I am not positive about the Northridge, California information.

-1947, March 17: James Dale Edwards buried in Salem Oregon, Bellcrest Cemetery.

James Dale Edwards had a very interesting life to the extent that he in the end controlled his own life and destiny instead having life control him and let destiny find him.

James D. Edwards was born into the new twentieth century, and really into a whole new way of life. He had four brothers born before him and at this time they were helping their father James Philando Edwards with the farm in Davis County Iowa, and with the birth of a new son I am sure it was looked upon with great anticipation.

Within a few years James Dale Edwards was able to help around the farm, but soon afterwards with his older brothers leaving home to start their own lives he and his leftover siblings were left to help their aging and ailing father around the farm. It must be understood that James Dale Edwards father James Philando Edwards was 44 years old at the time of James D. Edwards birth and ailing in health. James Philando Edwards was growing weak and blind, I believe life for the young children was not easy, and also one should realize it wasn't easy for James P. Edwards either. There was much to do on the farm, and to support their family in the new twentieth century a family had to work very hard to purchase the ever increasing prices of goods in town. It was only a matter of time until James Philando Edwards would have to sell the farm and find something other than a large farm to support his family.

STORY: (Told to me by Johnny Leroy Edwards)

"JAMES DALE EDWARDS GETTING SHOT AS A CHILD"

TOLD BY JOHNNY LEROY EDWARDS

James Dale Edwards and his brother(?) were playing in the house. Their mother had just got done putting freshly baked cookies in the cookie jar. Their mother told them to stay out of the cookie jar.

Their mother went out of sight and James Dale Edwards decided to try and get a cookie. James D. Edwards brother told him to stay out of the cookie jar, James Dale Edwards didn't listen. His brother reached for a .22 caliber rifle that was always hung on the wall. The rule of the house was the rifle must never be loaded. James Dale Edwards commenced on trying to get some cookies. His brother teasingly told him that he needed to get out of the cookie jar or he would shoot. James Dale Edwards didn't listen so his brother aimed the gun and thinking that the gun was unloaded pulled the trigger. The bullet that was shot went through James Dale Edwards head.

It was said that there was a tea cup full of brain matter and bone after the shot.

AUTHORS NOTE: Johnny Leroy Edwards said to me, (Johnny J. Edwards) that later in James Dale Edwards life you could look at James D. Edwards head and see the brain pulse where there wasn't any bone.

With James Dale Edwards father being a hard person to be around because of his demanding demeanor it wasn't very long until most of the children were getting ready to leave their home in Iowa for other places in America. In 1900 James P. Edwards and his family were still living in the Edwards home in Soap Creek Township in Davis County Iowa, but soon after 1902 when James Dale Edwards was born they left most likely for Colorado where James Philando

Edwards and Flora Belle Edwards had their last child, Buelah Rae Edwards in 1907.

Around the age of 18 years of age James Dale Edwards left his home which in 1910 was in Labette County, Kansas. It was told to me by my father Johnny Leroy Edwards that there were other reasons why James D. Edwards left at the age of 18 or possibly a earlier age.

My father told me a story which had much to do with the history of James Dale Edwards and his father James Philando Edwards.

STORY: (Told to me by my father Johnny L. Edwards)

When James Dale Edwards was young he worked very hard at the family farm, and working for his father wasn't easy. James Philando Edwards from most accounts worked his children very hard, it could be understood why with the farm and house work that needed to be done every day, but James P. Edwards was labourous to his children. There was a time when James Dale Edwards youngest brother Claude C. Edwards was possibly beaten or was treated in a way that James Dale Edwards and his brother Claude decided that they had enough of the rough and in their minds uncalled for treatment so they left their home and family seeking a better life away from their father and troubles. They jumped a train and took it to where I believe to be Colorado or California. I consider California a possibility because that is where I believe James D. Edwards brother Virgil lived at this time. I also consider Colorado a possibility because that is where James D. Edwards can be found in 1922 where he met and married his wife Sallie Barneycastle. It should be remembered that between 1910 and 1920 is when James Dale Edwards left home.

James Dale Edwards married Sally Barneycastle on December 22, 1922 in Fremont County, Canon City Colorado.

Note: James Dale Edwards married his wife Sallie Barneycastle on the same day "December 22" as his father James Philando Edwards married his wife Flora Belle Breeding.

James D. worked as a foundry person in the steel foundry mill in Canon City, but he also did some carpentry and other "jack of all" trades type jobs.

James D. Edwards at different times went to California to work in the produce fields but always came back to Colorado. It was also told to me by my father Johnny L. Edwards that James D. was paid a $1.00 a day cutting cord wood which contradicts with his other occupation of a foundry worker.

It is possible and most likely probable that James D. worked at the foundry in Canon City and lost that job because of hard times and the only job that he could find was cutting cord wood for a $1.00 a day. Supposedly because of the low pay that he was earning from cutting cord wood was the main reason why they left Colorado for Oregon. James D. Edwards and his family stayed in Colorado until around 1934 when they left for Oregon.

When James Dale Edwards left for Oregon with his wife Sallie and three children they left around the month of February. James D. left Colorado during the winter for unknown reasons, but what is known is that it took much courage to leave their home and travel over the Rocky mountains and the Cascade mountain range with young children and the possibilities of very cold weather and untold problems ahead.

Why did they decide to leave Colorado for Oregon? Lets take it further than that, why did they decide to leave Colorado during the latter winter months when it was known and understood that they were taking a chance with unknown hazards ahead. This was a very trying time for most families in the United States with jobs and money hard to come by. I believe James Dale Edwards decided to leave for the Northwest because he felt he had no other choice but to take this chance for the welfare and well being of his family.

The car that they used had no heat, they all packed into the car every day and rocks were heated in a stove and put in blankets and placed next to the children dressed in thick clothes, coats and blankets to keep them warm through out the long days of travel. My grandfather Dale had to patch the tires along the way many times. My father told me that by the time they arrived in Oregon the tires must have been mostly made of patch.

It was decided to go to Woodburn Oregon specifically because that is where James D. Edwards mother in law lived. When the Edwards family arrived in Woodburn Oregon they lived with Sallie's mother in a home which was across the street from the Glatt farm which was one of the few family businesses in the town of Woodburn which was not thriving but just getting by.

James Dale Edwards was hired at the Glatt farm as a extra hand, and later to be the foreman of the Glatt farm it self. It was a short time later that James Dale Edwards purchased 13 acres of land in Woodburn and built a one room log cabin for his family to live in while they started their new lives.

With experience in the steel foundry in Canon City Colorado James Dale Edwards was hired on as a steel worker in the Salem Iron Works Foundry in Salem Oregon where he worked until his death in 1947.

Random Notes:

Story told by Nola Andrews, that she was not at all happy to find out that she was pregnant, but was told by her doctor "The it might be that boy you always wanted". They lived on 9 Exchange Stree then. She lost a lot of weight during this pregnancy and that nobody even knew that she was pregnant except her next door neighbor and the Kowaski family that lived next door.

He was originally named Robert Daniel Andrews, but that was changed soon after his birth.

During high school, Dan worked in a Mobil Gas Station at 6th and Exchange in Emporia. It caught fire and burned and he then worked for his father, Doc Andrews, as a painter.

It was while he was working at the gas station owned by L.T. Moore that he met Sheriff Duncan and Frank Coburn, and after the fire he began as a process server at night for the Sheriff's Department after painting at day time. The process server job eventually led into a full time job with the Sheriff's Department. He was a deputy sheriff, an undersheriff and then sheriff.

After losing the election for sheriff, he worked for Gary Myers as a carpenter, did free-lance carpentry and painting work, and also for Virgil Morris as a satelite repair man. He even tended bar at Fred's Tavern . During the winter he would cut wood. He even went down to the Severy area and cut wood down there. That is where he meet Delberta. After marrying Delberta they owned a supper club and he even bought a beer tavern. Both of these were given up. He later worked on construction with the George Myers Construction Company based out of Wichita, KS. He went through hard times, and fell from a tree and broke his back which has severly limited his job opportunities. He is taking a college class the spring semester of 1996. sending unit. He was an electronic engineer and drew up electrical schematics for the nuclear plant at Green River, Utah. He was in the Navy as a courier and he learned to fly through the help of accomodating pilots transporting him from place to place throughout the United States and foreign countries. He created an electrical engineering firm and then sold it. He then bought a boat and toured the South Pacific for one year. When he returned he bought a 3,5000 acre ranch seven miles south of Tempo California. This was not productive so he started flying for the government in Alaska fighting forest fires." According to his sister, Patty, Bobby was always reading books, and talked all over the world over his ham radio.

Robert has four children, but not by the same woman.

In 1997 he was living with his mother, Dora, in California.

I was very lucky to have my father share with me many stories of his life in Woodburn Oregon while growing up.

I can't remember one mention of bad times in his childhood.

Johnny L. Edwards grew up in hard times but they were good times. Along with his older brother Albert and his sister Ruth(Petie) they had some very memorable times while living in the log cabin that his father built in Woodburn in the 1930's.

After High school my father more than anything wanted to join the Navy to serve in World War 2. After talking to his father James Dale Edwards and convincing him that this was what he wanted to do, his father James D. Edwards gave his approval and it is here that Johnny L. Edwards started his adult life.

While serving in the Navy Johnny L. Edwards father James Dale Edwards passed away. This of course was a hard time for him and his family, in the end it was very painful for Johnny L. Edwards because of his Naval deployment the Navy was not able to allow him to go home to say his goodbye to his father, this hurt my father terribly to the end of his days.

Johnny L. Edwards married Cleone Charf on December 26, 1950 and from this marriage there were four children born.

If I could give a title to my father which I feel accurately portrays my father, it would be that he was a "Fisherman". My father was more relaxed and calm at heart while fishing and I feel that this was the real Johnny L. Edwards.

The art of fishing was a love of my fathers through out his life, all of his children were able to share this love of fishing with him, the love and interest in fishing that his children showed meant very much to my father.

Along with fishing there was camping, they both in my fathers mind went along with each other hand and hand. This was called "Edwards Camping", and everyone, friend and family new about the traditions which came with the annual event. Some of the traditions to this day still occur, Edwards Stew, tarp camping, walking in the dark with a flashlight, and most of what I remember of this is sitting around the campfire at night and listening intently to my fathers stories which molded me proudly into an image of my father.

Johnny L. Edwards had many hobbies some of which included: leather work, carving, woodworking, gardening, decorating, drawing, and stain glass work.

Later in my fathers life he tried to enjoy some of his life ambitions which were building a deck, enjoying a motor home and spending time at home enjoying his retirement.

If there was one thing that my father didn't accomplish that I know he wanted more than anything in his life was to build a work shop for woodworking and many more of his hobbies. He enjoyed talking with me about this dream, sharing his plans, telling me about the pot belly stove that would have in his mind made the shop complete.

My father was a Veteran of WW2 and the Korean War and was honorably buried in the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland Oregon.
